PLENARY SESSION III

Linking Generations by Strengthening Relationships

This session will provide individuals the knowledge and skills to assist fathers, mothers and families to enhance their capacity to promote healthy relations, i.e.: marriage, adult siblings, children within the family, and general relationships. Building strong relationships is an important key to success in all aspects of our lives. Some of life’s greatest happiness and greatest sorrow come from relationships we have with others in our families and communities. This session will offer participants the opportunity to learn the pros and cons of healthy relationships. Our ancestors were a family-centered people and we must take care of our families through healthy relationships. Children need their parents and parents need their children!
